

Low-Power A.M., Community Radio Stations & Highway Advisory Radios

Suggested Uses

Accident notices
Airport arrivals/departures
All Hazards (incl. NOAA, Amber, etc.)
Alternate routes
Anti-icing warning
Auto racing
Boil water alerts
Bridge out
Bus schedules
Carpool schedules
Citizens Academy classes
City council meetings
CrimeStopper PSA's
Community pool hours
Community services schedules
Commuter lanes
Concert control
Concerts
Congestion advisory
Convention information
Detours
Drawbridge warning
Escaped convict warning
Fire conditions
Fishing reports
Flood area alerts
Fog driving instructions
Garbage collection schedule changes
Hazardous spill warning
Hazards
Historic attractions
Hospital/emergency directions
Hospitals
Incident management
Lengths of lift lines at ski resorts
Lost and found
Multilingual broadcasts
National park information
NOAA weather rebroadcasts
Objects in road
Parking availability at malls & airports
Parking lots
Rest areas
Restaurants open/closed
Road closures
Road construction

Rock slide warnings
Safety tips
School closures
School events
Security applications
Service locations
Shopping center parking
Snow
Special community events
Speed limit advisories
Speed reminders
Sports events
State fair information
Street tour highlights
Time
Tourist information
Traffic conditions
Traffic lane shifts
Utility services schedules
Weather advisories
Weather warnings
When will the power come back on msgs.
Wild life warnings
Work zone control

---

A Community Radio Station is ideal for:

- Curbing information-only calls that would normally overload dispatch call-in lines
- Reassuring the public
- Critical incident management & messages
- Detailed emergency messages
- Timely emergency messages
- Rapidly changing emergency messages
- Incident management lasting hours, days or longer